

Claude Garamond

Geboren vermutlich 1499 in Paris, gestorben 1561 in Paris. Nach der Lehre beim Pariser Drucker Antoine Augereau (†1534) Mitarbeiter von Pierre Haultin und Claude Chevallon. Schriftgießer und Drucker in Paris. Garamonds Antiqua wird in einigen Graden schon 1531 angewendet. Zwischen 1540 und 1541 entstehen die drei Grade seiner »grecs du roi«, nach handschriftlichen Vorlagen des kretischen Schreibers Angelo Vergetois für den Buchhändler und Drucker Robert Estienne. Zwischen 1545 und 1546 tritt der Stempelschneider und Schriftgießer Garamond auch als Verleger hervor, zunächst gemeinsam mit Pierre Gaultier, dann mit Jean Barbé. Nach Garamonds Tod gelangen bedeutende Teile seines Materials an den Schriftgießer Guillaume Le Bé, Reste an Christoph Plantin und Andreas Wechel.
