The following is what the Iowa Press Association made of Horace Greeley’s note declining the invitation to meet with them the following June:

“I have considered all along whether any agent had derided the preparedness of the President meeting June in the woods on Saturday. I have been away, cannot, and R.R. trip saves then I can mos with right strem. If sles are blight, do thy now early. Any instance nation that brick scores are dangerous to hams given me the booms.”

Yours Truly,
Horace Greeley
